DDOT Operating Status Update: Changes to the Commercial Vehicle Annual Tag and Loading Zone Annual Permit

Mayor Muriel Bowser extended the ongoing Public Health Emergency to May 20, and the District Department of Transportation (DDOT) will delay its issuance of the 2021 commercial vehicle annual tags and loading zone annual permits.

The District will continue to honor the 2020 tags and permits as payment for commercial vehicle loading zones. Until further notice, commercial vehicles should continue to pay for the use of loading zones in one of the following three ways:

- 2020 annual loading zone pass (issued as a sticker decal, placed on the passenger side window)
- One-day loading zone permit via TOPS, printed out, and displayed on the dashboard
- Valid ParkMobile session

Questions can be directed to the Public Space Regulation Division Customer Relations Branch at (202) 442-4670.

###

The District Department of Transportation (DDOT) is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of, its projects, programs, activities, and services on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability as provided by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act and other related statutes.

In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code sec. 2-1401.01 et seq. (Act), the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, genetic information, disability, source of income, status as a victim of an interfamily offense, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, which is prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above-protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in a violation of the Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.
